

The present law has been great. The many calls I received before the present law went into effect were terrible. At all hours especially at meal times. I have not had many calls at all after the new law went into effect. Please keep the present law the way it is. We do not need any changes except to make it stronger. Thank you.